CITY COUNCIL NOTES

All City Council actions are posted on the City website at www.hhoh.org under the Government tab > Council > Council Actions. Here you will be able to quickly see and read all recommended actions from the work sessions and the subsequent action taken at the council meetings. This is to provide residents a place to stay up-to-date on all legislative agenda items.

Everyone is encouraged to attend in person or virtually, Board and Commission meetings, City Council work sessions, and City Council meetings through the "Watch Live" feature at www.hhoh.org. By engaging this way, it not only helps you to stay up to date with what is happening in Huber Heights, but provides you an opportunity to give feedback, voice concerns, and gain valuable insight into decision making processes that impact the entire community.

GET READY FOR A SUMMER TO REMEMBER!

Summer is just around the corner, and Huber Heights is turning up the heat with a full lineup of exciting, family-friendly events designed to bring our community together all season long. Whether you're a fan of live music, fresh food, outdoor movies, or neighborhood traditions, there's something for everyone to enjoy. And the best part? Most events are free and open to the public, but some do require registration! A complete list and links can be found on the City's website at www.hhoh.org.

From May through September, you can count on Huber Heights to deliver unforgettable experiences in our beautiful parks and public spaces. Mark your calendars, gather your friends and family, and let's make this a summer to remember.

Food, Fresh Finds & Community Favorites

- Cloud Park Food Truck Rallies kicked off May 6 and run every other Tuesday through September 9 at Thomas A. Cloud Memorial Park. Come hungry!
- The Farmers Market at the Heights opened May 10 at Eichelberger Amphitheater with local produce, artisan goods, and more every Saturday.
- On May 26 at 4:00 pm, honor those who served at our heartfelt Memorial Day Wreath Laying Ceremony at the Veterans Memorial in Cloud Park.

Arts & Culture Under the Stars

- Shakespeare in the Heights returns with Much Ado About Nothing on select dates May 30 – June 8 at the Eichelberger Amphitheater. Don't miss the Date Night performance on May 31 for an evening of romance and laughter!
- Storytime with Dayton Metro Library brings books to the park every Wednesday in June at Cloud Park and every Wednesday in July at Shullgate Park. Perfect for little readers!

Free Concerts & Youth Entertainment Series

The Eichelberger Amphitheater will be rocking all summer long with our Free Summer Music Series, featuring acts like:

- The Menus (June 14)
- Reel2Real (July 12)
- Run Katie Run (July 26)
- Nasty Bingo (August 9)
- Parrots of the Caribbean (August 23)
- Heather Redman & the Reputation (September 6)

Plus, don't miss the new Youth & Family Entertainment Series, including The Little Mermen (July 11) and Sonic Movie Night (July 19) featuring the ESport GameTruck.

Join us! 2025 STATE of the CITY

with JEFF GORE
Mayor of the City of Huber Heights

June 9, 2025
6 P.M.
CITY HALL
6131 TAYLORSVILLE RD.

2025 STATE OF THE CITY ADDRESS

Mayor Jeff Gore and the City of Huber Heights invite the public to attend the 2025 State of the City Address on Monday, June 9, 2025, at 6:00 PM at The City of Huber Heights City Hall (6131 Taylorsville Road).

This annual address will highlight the City's accomplishments, outline strategic priorities for the coming year, and celebrate the community partnerships that are shaping a stronger future for Huber Heights.

The 2025 address will cover:

- Major development updates including Buc-ee's, the Richard F. Shomper Governance Center, and the new Public Works Facility
- Expansions in housing and business, with over 500 units under construction and more than 1,200 approved
- Public safety advancements and community-focused outreach
- Infrastructure improvements across roads, utilities, and parks
- Ongoing financial excellence and transparency from the City's leadership

"This isn't just an annual update - it's a window into the heartbeat of Huber Heights," said Mayor Gore. "We're growing stronger every year, and the residents, businesses, and leadership behind that growth deserve to see where we're headed."

For more information, visit www.hhoh.org.
